GUIDED TOURS

Southern Vermont Sampler
Fall Foliage
Revolutionary and Civil War

"Should you ever weary of the modern world, take a turn to Vermont where the pavement ends." – Charles Kuralt

Southern Vermont Sampler and Fall Foliage Tours

- Spectacular mountain vistas
- First American marble quarry
- Alpaca plantation
- Vermont artisans in their studios
- Historic and National Register sites
- Working experimental farm
- Maple sugaring house
- Unique general stores
- Many stops along the way

Revolutionary and Civil War Tour

This region's Green Mountain Boys and Ethan Allen had significant impact on the victories at Fort Ticonderoga and the Battle of Bennington. Also, Vermont has strong ties to the Lincoln family and sent – and lost – proportionately more soldiers to the Civil War than any other state.

- Over 25 points of interest including many on the National Register of Historic Places; learn the significance of these locations
- Places where Ethan Allen and the Green Mountain Boys lived, camped, met (and drank), traveled and planned their victories
- Civil War related points of interest including where Lincoln's descendents lived and were buried, where Mary Todd Lincoln stayed, underground railroad sites and more
- Regional sites and historic districts
- Route includes covered bridges
