

South Shire Inn

Bed and Breakfast

Relax and enjoy the romantic ambiance of days gone by in this exquisite turn-of-the-century, 1887 Victorian Inn located in the Southern Vermont village of Bennington.

The South Shire Inn has the charm of a true Vermont Bed and Breakfast with nine uniquely appointed rooms.

The estate, formerly the private residence of Louis A. Graves, was the creation of architect William C. Bull, who designed many of the stately Victorian structures in the Shires of Vermont.

124 Elm Street, Bennington, VT 05201

(802) 447-3839

Fax: (802) 442-3547

relax@southshire.com

www.SouthShire.com

The South Shire is an Historic Bed and Breakfast located in southwestern Vermont.

For seasonal rates
call 888-201-2250

All rooms have private baths, fireplaces for fall and winter, A/C, irons and hair dryers. Some rooms have basic cable TV, DVD/VCR and whirlpool tubs.

Checkout is 11:00 a.m.

All rooms are double occupancy.

The South Shire Inn provides the perfect starting point for your day, whether traveling for business or pleasure. Enjoy a full breakfast including homemade muffins, juice, fruit and chef's choice of entree before an exciting sojourn through Southern Vermont.

- Local Restaurants
- Historical Buildings & Sites
- Museums
- Pottery
- Cross Country Skiing
- Touring
- Theatre
- Romantic Getaway

